

JOIN THE

INDEPENDENT ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON MATERIAL IRREGULARITIES (ACMI) MEMBERS

APPLY TODAY!

In terms of section 5 of the Public Audit Act (PAA), the Auditor-General of South Africa (AGSA) invites applications from suitably qualified persons to serve as panel members on the advisory committee for material irregularities (ACMI).

- The ideal candidates should preferably have public sector experience.
- All possible candidates across the country are encouraged to apply.
- Applicants must be South African citizens and must have the best interest of the AGSA at heart.
- All members of the committee must be independent from the AGSA and may not render contracted audit or other services to the AGSA or any auditee that may become subject to a certificate of debt.

Members of the committee may not be employed by auditees of the AGSA or serve as accounting officers or members of accounting authorities in South Africa.

01 Forensic Specialist (Panel Expert)

Experience

Relevant progressive work experience of at least 10 years in law, ISA240-related experience, forensics in the public sector. Experience in supply chain management would be an added advantage.

Qualifications

LLB, Accounting or forensics accounting degree

Professional body

Association of Certified Fraud Examiners in South Africa (ACFE) or Institute of Commercial Forensic Practitioners (ICFP)

02 Legal Specialist (Penal Expert)

Experience

For this specific vacancy, the panel member should be an attorney or advocate. As most cases will involve work related to auditing, accounting and ethics, and will be conducted through general legal principles, a sound and thorough understanding of these disciplines is required. Experience in advisory, governance and/or disciplinary structures (mainly in public sector) and a legal expert well versed in company law (duties and liability of directors), fiduciary duties of accounting officers and authorities, public law and/or administrative law to act as the chairperson. More than 20 years' experience in the legal fraternity.

Qualifications

LLB, Master's in law

Professional body

Admission as an attorney or advocate

03 Supply chain management expertise – Panel Expert

Experience

10+ years' progressive experience in procurement/supply chain management; preferably 5+ years of direct management experience in a professional services industry or regulated environment.

Qualifications

Postgraduate degree in procurement/supply chain management/commerce/law or related field of study – master's or MBA preferred.

Professional body

Chartered Institute of Procurement and Supply (CIPS)

04 Cost analyst (Panel Expert)

Experience

10+ experience in the banking sector, insurance or public service institutions responsible for analysing and determining loss incurred, expenditure analysis, financial modelling and costing of public services. Experience across the public and private sector would be an added advantage.

Qualifications

Master's in economics econometrics, statistics or accounting

Professional body

Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) and/or Chartered Institute of Management Accountants (CIMA)

Auditor-General South Africa

www.agsa.co.za

05 Registered auditor (Panel Expert)

Experience

Should have served at partner level as auditor in the public sector or regulated environment.

Qualifications

CA(SA)

Professional body

Independent Regulatory Board for Auditors (IRBA) and South African Institute of Chartered Accountants (SAICA)

The candidates must possess the following behavioural competencies:

- Independence and integrity
- Strong resolution and dispute mediation skills
- Compliance driven
- Understanding of public sector
- Good communication skills
- Analytical reasoning abilities
- Natural curiosity
- Ability to exercise professional scepticism

KEY DUTIES OF ACMI

- Hearing of oral representations made by the accounting officer, accounting authority or those members of that accounting authority relating to the material irregularity.
- Submitting findings and recommendations on the oral representations made by that accounting officer, accounting authority or those members of that accounting authority for consideration by the auditor-general.
- Question or require explanations in respect of any issues relevant to the matter before the ACMI.

REMUNERATION:

- The remuneration shall be determined by the auditor-general, taking the following into consideration:
 - » The actual time spent by the panel members on committee-related work.
 - » Terms and conditions as determined by the auditor-general, including agreed rates.

TERMS OF OFFICE:

- Members of the ACMI panel will be appointed by the auditor-general on a part-time basis for a period of three years, which may be renewable once (i.e. maximum six years).
- The auditor-general, in his/her sole discretion and as he/she deems necessary, will invite any one or more members of the panel, to attend an oral representation hearing.

ENQUIRIES:

Enquiries should be directed via e-mail to ACMIapplication@agsa.co.za.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE – NOTE:

- Applications must be submitted in writing, indicating which position is being applied for, and must contain at least the following: detailed curriculum vitae, motivation for appointment, a certified copy of identity document and qualifications obtained and at least two references demonstrating knowledge or experience application in the applicant's selected field.
- Background verification, including criminal record and citizenship checks will form part of the selection process.
- Preference will be given to candidates whose appointment will enhance representivity.
- Correspondence will be limited to shortlisted members only.
- Candidates must complete the attached declaration of conflict of interest.
- No late applications will be accepted.
- Strict compliance with the application requirements and selection procedure will be adhered to.

APPLICATION PROCESS:

Eligible persons who wish to be considered for appointment are invited to motivate in no more than 200 words why you feel that you are suitable. Please include experience and qualifications in your motivation.

Please visit our website www.agsa.co.za by clicking on the AGSA careers link, or by the following the <https://www.agsa.co.za/Careers.aspx> link.

The auditor-general by email to ACMIapplication@agsa.co.za

Auditor-General South Africa

www.agsa.co.za